

March 12, 2020

At Eastern Music Festival (EMF), the health and safety of our community of students, faculty, patrons, guest artists, and staff is always our highest priority. At this time, EMF student enrollment and program planning will continue as planned, and all summer activities are still on schedule.

For the last several weeks, we have been closely monitoring the news and developments about the Coronavirus (COVID-19). We are reaching out today to assure you that we are taking every precaution to protect everyone as we diligently prepare for our 59th Festival Season of summer study, performances, and events in the heart of North Carolina.

EMF is following the guidance offered by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), as well as local and state authorities and our partners at Guilford College and the City of Greensboro. As such, all summer study and performances are still on schedule, at this time.

I want to personally reassure you that EMF is being proactive and vigilant and will continue to keep you updated during the COVID-19 situation.

On behalf of everyone at EMF, thank you for your concern and support. I look forward to seeing you this summer.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Chris Williams'.

Chris Williams
Executive Director
Eastern Music Festival

To learn more about prevention information on the CDC website, visit www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/about/prevention-treatment.html