Prelude to Paris

on March 31, 6:30pm at Revolution Mill

This year's GALA will honor the LeBauer Family for their 56 years of commitment to Eastern Music Festival. The evening will include music of renowned American pianist and EMF faculty artist William Wolfram, French cuisine, and French inspired auction items including a week's stay at a Paris apartment.

The celebration serves as a major annual fundraiser in support of EMF's Young Artist Scholarships. Corporate sponsorships and individual host opportunities are available.

For further information contact Deborah Kintzing, Director of Development at $(336)\ 333-7450\ x\ 223$ or dkintzing@easternmusicfestival.org.

Individual tickets are $75 per person and available through Triad Stage Box Office (336) 272-0160 or purchase online.
