2022 ASSOCIATE DEAN OF STUDENTS

REPORTS TO:
Dean of Students
Melissa Edwards, Director of Education

The Associate Dean of Students, Dean of Students and the counseling staff provide EMF students with support and guidance as they meet the daily challenges of the program.

The Associate Dean of Students, as a member of EMF’s leadership, shares responsibility for the welfare of the student body. They will play a pivotal role in preparing, leading, supervising and supporting the Music Festival’s counseling staff and in ensuring that students are well-supervised and that issues, should they arise, are dealt with promptly and professionally.

THE ASSOCIATE DEAN OF STUDENTS WILL:

• Be responsible for students’ psychological and physical welfare. In some cases this may mean deciding to involve parents and health care professionals to ensure the welfare of a student. This also means working with the counseling staff to maintain a high level of student morale.
• Work with students and faculty to resolve day-to-day problems, including physical well-being, attendance, attitude, etc.
• Implement all policies and procedures as described in the EMF Student Handbook. In cases involving potential dismissal of a student, the Assoc. Dean of Students, the Dean of Students, the Director of Admissions, and the Executive Director will form a special panel to review each case. (The panel may also include selected board, faculty and staff members, as required. A decision of dismissal may be made only by the full committee and not by any individual member of the committee).
• Communicate with parents regarding student emergencies, discipline problems, health concerns, etc. Any serious disciplinary action (e.g. dismissal) must be approved first by the committee named above before being communicated to a student’s parents.
• Maintain strong communications with the counselors and individually coach counselors in their leadership roles.
• Maintain regular office hours, to be approved by the Dean of Students and Director of Admissions.
• Meet regularly with the counseling staff, the Dean of Students, and the Director of Admissions for routine discussions and problem-solving.
• Supervise the work of the counselors, including the establishment and enforcement of residence hall rules, curfew, visitation, and quiet hours.
• Work Counselor Office shifts, as needed.
• Oversee communication of student transportation and procurement of vehicles.
• Be accessible at all times in case of emergency.
• Ensure that adequate supervision is provided for all off-campus trips.

• Ability to work with people of a variety of ages, backgrounds, and personalities.
