WELCOME

On behalf of EMF's board, faculty, staff, and young artists, welcome to the 2023 Season of Eastern Music Festival. Our 62nd Season brings an array of familiar masterworks as well as pieces by composers who are new to us all! We delight in welcoming 265+ young artists, a festival faculty of more than 60 world renowned artists, and special guest artists including Gil Shaham, Hélène Grimaud, and Awadagin Pratt. Join us for more than 50 concerts over 36 days in our five-week celebration of musical excellence.

GREENSBORO OPERA AND EMF PRESENT: YOURS IS MY HEART ALONE

Join Greensboro Opera and EMF as we laugh, sigh, and cry through the lens of the most famous and popular operetta repertoire. Feast on favorites from Gilbert & Sullivan, Franz L  har, Jacques Offenbach, and others celebrating the treasure trove of some of the best storytelling on stage!

Reserve your tickets now for the annually sold-out celebration of Opera and Broadway classics!

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19 | 8 PM

Dana Auditorium, Guilford College

PERCUSSION EXPLORATIONS

Our evening explores the many facets of the percussionist's art, beginning with a tribute to the marching drums of the revolutionary era fife and drum tradition. It also showcases a marimba quartet that evokes the feeling of Australian aboriginal music, as well as a harp and steel pan duo performed by EMF principal harpist Anna Kate Mackle and John Shaw by American composer Andy Akiho, and many more percussive surprises! The performance this evening features only work by living composers.

MUSICALLY SPEAKING

THURSDAY, FRIDAYS, & SATURDAYS / 7 PM

Maestro Peter Perret, Musicologist Dr. Greg Carroll, and friends of EMF explore the history and backstory behind the evening's composers and repertoire in a casual, conversational atmosphere each Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in the Moon Room, adjacent to Dana Auditorium. Whether you are nurturing your love of classical music or a veteran of EMF performances, you'll be delighted and enlightened by these pre-concert talks. Free and open to the public.
